seems to be friendly with Speaker Sweet of the State Assembly, all is not har-mony yet by any means in Republican circles in the Legislature, and Gov. Whitman has called to his aid what might be termed a "kitchen cabinet" in the persons of Francis H. Hendricks, the old persons of Francis H. Hendricks, the old Republican standby of Thecodore Roose-velt: George W. Aldridge of Rochester, N. V. V. Franchot of Orleans, Samuel S. Koenig of New York and William L. Ward of Westchester, who are expected to have influence enough to secure favorable action in both the Senate and Assembly not only upon the Governor's financial legislation but other legislation which would tend to strengthen the hold upon the Republican State machine of political friends of Gov. Whitman.

The first evidence of this was the introduction in the Legislature last Friday by Senator George F. Argetsinger and Majority Leader Simon L. Adler of the Assembly, both adherents of George W. Aldridge of Rochester, of the score or more bills embodying Gov. Whitman's financial recommendations without consultation with Chalgman Hause. W. Senator Hause.
